ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATRE

Emily Stevens and Henri Bergman in the House of Tears Feature for Today and Tuesday.

The brilliant emotional actress and stage star, Emily Stevens, assisted by the celebrated dramatic actor, Henri Bergman, in the House of Tears, a five part Metro production, is the feature at the Breed theatre for today and Tuesday. The story is very interesting and full of charm and feeling and is presented in a finished style.

In the House of Tears there lived Robert Collingwood, his wife Alice, and their baby girl Gail. In the courts Robert has been granted a divorce and the custody of their little Gail, upon the evidence that Mrs. Colling-wood has been found in a compromising situation with Henry Thorne. Once Mrs. Collingwood marries Thorne and they go west to live, Collingwood's mind is upset by his domestic troubles and he loses his fortune in Wall Street manipulations, and goes back to Wall Street to flit with fortune. Here he electrified other operatives by his phenomenal rise to a fortune and he becomes the most powerful man of wealth he aspired to be.
Fate causes him to meet his step-daughter and he becomes engaged to her under an assumed name. After a series of exciting adventures mother and daughter are united and Thorne is accidentally killed when an automobile runs off a bridge and he is hurled to death.

The Breed will also present Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in one of their delicious film farces entitled "Jones Auto." This, like all Drew comedies, possesses a limitless amount of fun, wholesome, laugh-making elements and in Jones Auto Mr. and Mrs. Drew present a series of excruciatingly funny situations.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Geraldine Farrar in Maria Rosa Special Five-reel Paramount Feature Today and Tomorrow—Vaudeville.

Two very classy vaudeville numbers will be seen at the Auditorium tonight. The first three days of this series comes Quinn and LaFey, a well known team of vaudeville entertainers who have gained a big reputation for themselves throughout the larger vaudeville circuits for their excellent variety work, songs and dances. The second act will be presented by Alice Farrell, the dancing violinist, who is, also in the "A" class of vaudeville talent.

The announcement that Geraldine Farrar appears as the star in another Lasky Picture today, is a production following the unprecedented success of Carmen, is of intense interest to every photoplay devotee in the world. Not even her wonderful career in grand opera overshadowed Geraldine Farrar's achievements on the screen, where she excels today as a personification unsurpassed, and where she has set an artistic mark that probably never will be reached.

Miss Farrar's characterization of the fiery Carmen will remain forever in the memories of those who have seen her an imperishable record. In her second photoplay, Maria Rosa, produced for the Lasky company under the personal supervision of Cecil B. De-Mille, Miss Farrar reaches new heights in photodramatic acting. In the part of Maria Rosa, she plays a young Irish peasant girl, simple of manner and clean of thought and life, who is plunged into the midst of tragedy by reason of the jealousy of an unworthy peasant suitor.

The scenes of this photoplay are laid in a little village of Spain. The characters are simple folk, children, so to speak, in the ways of the great outside world, but with the strength and force, of deep passions and sincere loves. In the midst of these human fates, comes the centre of a drama, thrilling in its episodes, gripping in its appeal and happy in its ending.

The coming photoplay for Monday and Tuesday will be one of the V. L.
E. E. productions featuring Frank Daniels, that famous comedian.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Exceptional Big Bill of Keith Vaudeville and Triangle Photo Plays—New Concert Orchestra Under the Direction of A. Brazza.

For the first half of this week the management of this popular playhouse announces a bill of Keith Vaudeville and Triangle photo plays that could not be equalled anywhere for the money. The headline attraction is Mlle. Roches Monkey Music hall, the funniest trained animal act in vaudeville. There is no person on the stage but the monkeys, and they present a show with a regular stage upon the stage. They also have the monkey orchestra, which plays throughout the performance. This is positively the most wonderful act ever seen in this theatre. Another act that will be a big surprise as well as a sensation is Hans Hanko, the world famous pianist. Many pianists have been heard on the vaudeville stage, but Hanko is without a doubt the most remarkable of them all. If you are a music lover, don't fail to hear him. The third act is Mabelle Ponds Trio, a big time attraction of the highest merit, who present a novel singing, dancing, juggling, and acrobatic act that is entirely different from anything ever seen here. Beginning with this bill there will be shown in addition to the regular programme of Triangle photo plays, The Pathe Weekly, which will be shown twice each week and will be thanked with the rest of the show every Monday and Tuesday.

The Triangle feature on this bill is Shell 43, a five part Ince production, featuring H. B. Warner and Eidit Markey.

In this drama of the invisible fighting units popularly designated as the secret service, H. B. Warner plays a tri-part of newspaper correspondent, German officer and English lieutenant, who in reality is the employ of the British government. His identity is kept secret, and with whom he comes in contact, but his credentials are never questioned and thus he has the freedom of all the territory in the fighting zone. The big moment in the play arrives when he is forced to decide whether he is really a human being with a heart and red-hot blood or only a thinking machine without a human mind.

While this production is staged in the atmosphere of the war zone and the spectacular military element is predominant, the intermixture of human interest and love is heard above the intrigue and din of shot and shell.

To complete the show there is a two-reel comedy called Puppets, a farce and a musical comedy. The contains laughs from beginning to end.
A new concert orchestra has been organized and will play in the house here today, under the leadership of Mr. A. Brazza, a violinist who has been directing in Keith theatres for the past eight years, and the music will be one of the features of the shows at this theatre.

were traveling in a southerly direction when the accident occurred. The truck was loaded with furniture, but this was removed by the men.

J. E. B. McGuire, agent at spending the evening in Baltic, saw the burning machine offered to be returned to Baltic in his car and get as-case. Mr. McGuire secured two chemicals from the engine room and was driven to the place by Moses Duficer rendered valuable assistance, but could not save a portion of the car.

The front part is a total loss; the rear end was not damaged. The engine was had been hit by a touring car earlier dentured and sprang a leak, causing the
